

A photograph of two antelope heads, likely reedbuck, standing in a dry, grassy savanna landscape. The antelopes have long, spiraling horns and are looking towards the camera. The background shows a line of trees and distant hills under a clear sky. A large, semi-transparent watermark logo is centered over the image. The logo consists of the letters 'LA' stacked above 'G', with a stylized antelope head silhouette below them. The text 'la gibier' is written in a cursive script, and 'SMALL WEDDINGS' is written in a sans-serif font below it.
